

German courses

For students aged
10 - 18 years old

Bell's German as a Foreign Language program in Geneva is designed to allow children between the ages of 10 and 18 to develop their language skills through "learning by doing" and to strengthen their written and oral German language skills.

Our courses allow students to practice the German language in a fun and engaging way, building their confidence and motivation.

These courses are designed to support and encourage students who are learning German in Swiss schools.
